PRAGUE & VIENNA

7 days / 6 nights

Day 1. PRAGUE

Arrival and transfer to your hotel.

Afternoon dedicated to visit the Old Town (Staré Mesto).

Old Town Square is the historical heart of Prague and it is here that you will find the Old Town Hall and its famous Astronomical Clock, dating from the 14th century. Be sure to see the hourly procession of the apostles on the clock and then climb (or take the elevator) to the top of the tower for panoramic views of the city, including the Gothic spires of the Tyn Church and Jan Hus monument.

We continued to explore the Jewish Quarter (Josefov) including the Maisel Synagogue, the Pinkas Synagogue, the Spanish Synagogue, the Old Jewish Cemetery and the Jewish Museum. Afterwards, head to Powder Tower, one of the historical gates to Old Town, before continuing next door to admire the exquisite Art Nouveau interiors of Prague's Municipal House, home to Smetana Hall and the Czech Philharmonic Orchestra.

This is a good place to stop for a cup of coffee or bite to eat in the ground floor restaurant.

Overnight in Prague.

Day 2. PRAGUE

Breakfast at the hotel.

Today we head for Charles Bridge to gaze upon its many statues and touch the Cross of St. Jan of Nepomuk. (You can climb the towers at either end of the bridge for panoramic views of the city.)

Across the Vltava River, in Lesser Town (Mala Strana), you will want to visit the baroque Church of St. Nicholas as well as the Church of Our Lady Victorious, home to the famous 'Infant Jesus of Prague'.

Afterwards, explore the quaint streets of this area that were once home to diplomats and merchants and now house many foreign embassies.

From Mala Strana continue to the beautiful cloisters of Strahov Monastery, where you can stop for a refreshing beer and snack, before visiting the Prague Loreto, Castle Square and Prague Castle, which is not a single building, but rather a complex of buildings and churches. The tour of Prague Castle, founded in the 9th century, should include visits to St. Vitus Cathedral, the Royal Palace, St. George's Basilica and Golden Lane.

After a busy day of sightseeing, board a relaxing dinner boat cruise along the Vltava River and admire the sights of Prague by night.

Overnight in Prague.

Day 3. PRAGUE

Breakfast at the hotel.

Begin your day exploring Wenceslas Square, the busiest and liveliest part of the city.

There are many choices for dining and shopping in this area, especially on Na Prikope Street. Here, you should visit the National Museum at the top of the Square, with its Hall of Fame devoted to famous Czech personalities, as well as the Alfons Mucha Museum on Panska Street, parallel to the square. This relaxing oasis showcases the Art Nouveau designs of the famous artist.

At the afternoon, head into New Town (Nove Mesto), to see the New Town Hall and Charles Square before continuing towards the river to Dancing House and the Manes Exhibition Hall, dominated by a 15th century water tower and dedicated to all forms of visual arts. Its juxtaposition of old and new makes it one of the most photographed landmarks in Prague. Afterwards, follow the river up to the National Theatre then cross the Legion Bridge.

EUROSPAINTRAVEL

Time permitting, make your way to Ujezd tram stop and follow the signs for 'Lanove drahy' to ride the funicular up to the Petrin Tower (Little Eiffel Tower) for the most amazing views of the city.

Finally, spend your last evening wandering around the quaint shops and restaurants of Kampa Park before making your way across the Charles Bridge one last time.

Overnight in Prague.

Day 4. PRAGUE - VIENNA

Breakfast at the hotel.

Today we continue on your trip to Vienna.

Transfer to the train station and departure to Vienna. (5 hrs aprx)

Arrival at the train station in Vienna and transfer to the hotel.

Check into your hotel and savor the true flavor of Vienna in the chandelier-lit splendor of a nearby kaffeehaus. Every afternoon around 3pm the coffee and pastry ritual of 'Kaffeejause' takes place across the city.

Afterwards, we get acquainted with the city by choosing a tour such as 'Vienna Hop on Hop Off, ' showcasing the main sights of the Austrian capital .

Overnight in Vienna.

Day 5. VIENNA

Breakfast at the hotel.

Wake up early today and head for St. Stephan's Cathedral, Vienna's 12th century Gothic basilica, crowned by a 450 foot steeple. Climb the spiral steps of the South Tower for an amazing panoramic view of the city. Following your tour of the cathedral, stroll up the pedestrian only Kärntnerstrasse, the main shopping street, towards Staatsoper. This elegant and imposing building is Austria's leading opera house and presents some of the world's greatest music .

At the afternoon visit the Hofburg Palace, the winter palace of the Habsburgs. The complex is so vast that you are not likely to see it all in one day so we visit the main attractions, including the Albertina, Augustinerkirche, Kaiserappartments (Imperial Apartments) and the magnificent Schatzkammer (Imperial Treasury), home of the Habsburg jewels, including the crowns of the Holy Roman and Austrian empires as well as the greatest treasure, the Imperial Crown, dating from 962.

Overnight in Vienna.

Breakfast at the hotel.

Begin the day at the Schönbrunn Palace, the stunning summer palace of the Habsburgs where you will want to see the State Apartments, followed by the Gloriette, the marble summerhouse and the palace's Imperial Gardens. Afterwards, take a break at Tiroler House (west of Gloriette). This was the favorite retreat of the Empress Elilsabeth, but is nowadays a small restaurant and café.

At the afternoon, plan to spend it at Kumsthistorisches Museum, housing the world's largest collection of Bruegels, along with the works of old masters such as Dürer, Rubens, and Rembrandt.

On your final night in Vienna, make your way to the Prater where you can enjoy an exceptional panorama over the city at night from the top of the iconic Riesenrad ferris wheel. You can have dinner at one of the many open air cafes that line the park then leisurely stroll along the abundant tree lined paths before saying 'Auf Wiedersehen' to Vienna.
